Highlights in Cubs History

In 120 National League seasons, the Cubs have played 17,654 games and have won 9,058 (154 were tied), both major league records.

1995: The Cubs won their 9,000th game May 21 at Los Angeles, defeating the Dodgers 2-1 in 13 innings ... the Cubs have won more games than any other one-city professional franchise.

- Sammy Sosa hit the 10,000th homer in Cubs history August 14 in Los Angeles off Tom Candiotti.
- Sosa had the second 30-homer/30-steal campaign in Cubs history, hitting 36 homers and stealing 34 bases.
- the Cubs set a major league record September 28 by overcoming six deficits in a 12-11 win over Houston.

1993: Sosa became the first player in Cubs history to have a 30/30 season, finishing the year with 33 homers and 36 steals.

- Randy Myers recorded a N.L.-record 53 saves.

1990: Ryne Sandberg led the N.L. with 40 home runs, the third-highest single-season total for a second baseman behind the 42 hit by St. Louis' Rogers Hornsby in 1922 and Atlanta's Davey Johnson in 1973 ... the last time a second baseman led the N.L. in homers was in 1925, when Hornsby hit 39.

- Sandberg established a M.L. record by playing errorless ball in 123 straight games June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990.

1989: The Cubs won their second N.L. Eastern Division title when they defeated Montreal 3-2 at Olympic Stadium September 26 ... the Cubs compiled a 93-69 record under N.L. Manager of the Year Don Zimmer.

- for only the fifth time, teammates finished as the top two votegetters in the Jackie Robinson N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting ... Jerome Walton, who had a club-record 30-game hitting streak during the season, won the award, while Dwight Smith finished 2nd in the voting.
- Sandberg ended the season with an errorless streak of 90 games, the longest ever by a M.L. second baseman in one season.

1988: The first official Wrigley Field night game took place August 9.

1987: The Cubs led the league with a club-record 209 home runs.

- Andre Dawson became the first player from a sixth-place team to be selected as the N.L.'s Most Valuable Player, hitting 49 home runs.
- on August 13, Hall of Famer Billy Williams had his No. 26 retired.

1984: The Cubs won their first N.L. Eastern Division championship when they compiled a 96-65 record under N.L. Manager of the Year Jim Frey ... it was the first time since 1945 that the Cubs advanced into postseason competition.

- the Cubs clinched the title in Pittsburgh September 24 ... Rick Sutcliffe beat the Pirates 4-1 on a 2-hitter.

1982: On May 25 at San Diego, Fergie Jenkins became the seventh pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 strikeouts.

- on August 22, Ernie Banks became the first Cub to have his uniform number (14) retired.

1978: The largest Opening Day crowd at Wrigley Field, 45,777, attended the April 14 home opener vs. Pittsburgh.

1970: Williams became the first player in N.L. history to play 1,000 consecutive games, reaching that mark April 30 ... his streak extended to 1,117 games before ending September 3.

1960: Don Cardwell threw a no-hitter against the Cardinals in his Cubs debut May 15 ... became the first pitcher in baseball history to hurl a no-hitter in his first appearance for a club.

1958: Banks became the first member of a team with a losing record to win the MVP Award ... also was MVP in 1959, becoming the first N.L. player to win the award in consecutive seasons.

1945: The pennant-winning Cubs swept 20 doubleheaders and split 10.

1935: The Cubs set their club record for consecutive victories in a season, winning 21 straight September contests in capturing the N.L. pennant.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 190 runs while hitting a N.L.-record 56 home runs.

- the largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) occurred June 27 against Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

1919: The Wrigley family's involvement with the Cubs started after the season when William Wrigley Jr. and a group of Chicago businessmen purchased the team from Charles H. Weeghman ... in 1921, Wrigley became majority stockholder.

- after Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.
- the sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park, now known as Wrigley Field.

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team.

1906: The Chicago club set all-time M.L. records for wins in a season and winning percentage ... the team won 116 games (with 36 losses) for a .763 winning percentage.

1876: The first game in the history of the franchise took place April 25, as Al Spalding pitched the first National League shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... centerfielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the 2nd inning.

- the first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati ... the inside-the-park homer was one of only 39 roundtrippers hit during the N.L.'s initial season.
- the creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, the first president of the Chicago club ... he held the dual role of league president and club president until his death in 1882 ... with the assistance of Albert G. Spalding, Chicago's first manager, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.
- of the eight original charter members of the N.L., only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

THE HISTORY OF WRIGLEY FIELD

In 1996, Wrigley Field will be playing host to major league baseball for the 83rd year.

Built in 1914, Wrigley Field is the third-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Detroit's Tiger Stadium (1912) and Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

Wrigley Field has been the site of such historic moments as:

- Babe Ruth's "called shot" when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location ... Ruth then proceeded to hit Charlie Root's next pitch in that vicinity ... the home run was hit October 1, 1932, during Game 3 of the World Series.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin' " September 28, 1938, vs. Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- the great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for nine innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- Weeghman Park was the home of the Chicago Whales of the Federal League, which lasted only two years before folding for financial reasons ... Chicago's entry in the Federal League was the property of Charles H. Weeghman, a wealthy restaurant-chain owner.
- the cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- after the Federal League folded, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.

The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.

- the park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was officially named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact except for a few touches of modernization, such as the electronic message board.

- the score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" to signify hit and error, are eyelets.
- no batted baseball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard ... two balls barely missed, landing on Waveland and Sheffield avenues ... one homer was hit by Roberto Clemente to left-centerfield, the other by Bill Nicholson to right-center.
- one of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- the bleacher wall is 11.5 feet high ... the basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.
- Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from the leftfield foul pole ... Billy Williams' No. 26 flies from the rightfield foul pole.

In 1988, Wrigley Field became the last M.L. ballpark to add lights.

- the first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out after 3 1/2 innings.
- the first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.

Wrigley Field also has been the site of numerous construction projects since Tribune Company purchased the Cubs in 1981.

- new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.
- during the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated prior to the 1990 season.
- sixty-seven private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcasting booths, in 1989 ... a press box and broadcasting booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate, along with a larger press dining room at the press box level ... other park improvements included a food court and a permanent concession stand in the upper deck.
- three on-site restaurants — the Stadium Club, the Friendly Confines Cafe and the Sheffield Grill — have opened during the last decade.

ROSTER RULES

Player Limits: Clubs must cut their active rosters to a maximum of 25 players or a minimum of 24 by Opening Day. From September 1 to Opening Day, teams may carry up to 40 players.

Waivers: There are four types of waiver requests — major league waivers, special waivers, outright waivers and unconditional release waivers.

Major league waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

1995 SEASON IN REVIEW

1995 Cubs Season Overview

ABOUT THE RECORD: The Cubs finished the season with a 73-71 record, 12.0 games behind Cincinnati in the National League Central Division standings and 4.0 games behind Colorado in the wild-card race ... the club went 39-33 on the road and 34-38 at Wrigley Field.

- during the 20th century, the Cubs' only other campaigns in which they were above .500 on the road and below .500 at home took place in 1902, 1917, 1944 and 1994.
- the Cubs finished the season with a winning record for the second time in three years, having gone 84-78 in 1993 ... the club had just two winning seasons in the previous 20 campaigns, winning the N.L. Eastern Division title in 1984 and 1989 with records of 96-65 and 93-69, respectively.
- the Cubs finished the year with the sixth-best record in the N.L. ... in 1994, their 49-64 record was the third-worst in the major leagues.
- this was the Cubs' third consecutive winning road campaign, marking the first time the club has had three straight plus-.500 seasons on the road since 1937-1939 ... the Cubs finished up with a better record on the road than at home in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1937-1938.
- the Cubs' 24-game victory improvement from 1994 was surpassed only by Cleveland (34 more wins), Boston (32), California (31) and Seattle (30).

SPLIT PERSONALITIES: The Cubs had distinct personalities in their wins and losses ... the breakdown:

	AVG	H-AB	R	HR	R/GM	ERA	IP	H	ER	HR
73 Wins	.292	741-2538	480	99	6.6	2.63	677.0	571	198	59
71 Losses	.237	574-2425	213	59	3.0	5.75	624.0	742	399	103

HISTORY IN THE MAKING: The Cubs reached a pair of milestones in 1995.

- on May 21 at Los Angeles, the Cubs won the 9,000th game in franchise history in a 13-inning 2-1 victory ... Sammy Sosa had the game-winning hit, a solo homer in the 13th off Dodgers reliever Felix Rodriguez.
- on August 14, also in Los Angeles, Sosa hit the 10,000th home run in Cubs history off the Dodgers' Tom Candiotti.

FROM A(DAMS) TO Z(EILE): The Cubs utilized 43 players during the season — 22 position players and 21 pitchers.

- 23 of the players made their Cubs debuts ... the club's all-time roster now stands at 1,577 players.
- 10 of the players were rookies.
- only 6 players on the Cubs' end-of-season roster had appeared in a game for the team prior to the 1993 season (Jim Bullinger, Frank Castillo, Shawon Dunston, Mark Grace, Rey Sanchez and Sammy Sosa).

ALL-STARS: The Cubs sent five representatives to the All-Star Game in Arlington, TX — manager Jim Riggleman, pitching coach Fergie Jenkins, first baseman Mark Grace, pitcher Randy Myers and outfielder Sammy Sosa.

- Riggleman was a member of N.L. manager Felipe Alou's coaching staff, while Jenkins was the N.L.'s honorary captain.
- Myers earned the save in the N.L.'s 3-2 win, pitching a scoreless 9th inning ... he was making his third All-Star Game appearance.
- Sosa was 0-for-1 in his All-Star Game debut, while Grace played 3.0 innings but did not bat in his second Midsummer Classic appearance.

AWARD WINNERS: Sosa was twice named the N.L.'s Player of the Week, while Grace won the weekly honor once.

- it marked the first time since 1989 that the Cubs won the award three times in a season ... Sosa became the first Cub to win the award twice in one year since Ryne Sandberg in 1984.

THE RECORD SETTERS: The following Cubs records were either set or tied:

- on August 18, the Cubs tied their club mark by scoring 26 runs at Colorado.
- on September 28, the Cubs set a M.L. record by overcoming six deficits to defeat Houston 12-11 at Wrigley Field.
- the Cubs were not shut out until their 48th game of the season, their longest stretch from the beginning of the year of scoring at least 1 run every game.
- Grace had 51 doubles, the most in Cubs history for a left-handed batter ... Charlie Grimm had held the mark, recording 42 two-base hits in 1932.
- Grace tied a N.L. record by drawing 6 walks in an August 10 doubleheader against San Diego.
- Kevin Roberson hit 2 pinch homers to tie Thad Bosley for the club's all-time record with 6.

THE LEADER BOARD: With 45 saves, the Cubs led the N.L. in that department for the second time in club history (also in 1993).

- Myers had a league-high 38 saves, winning the N.L. saves title for the second time (also in 1993 with a league-record 53 saves) ... finished 2nd in the Rolaids Relief Man Award standings behind St. Louis' Tom Henke (104 points to 100).
- the Cubs recorded a league-high 12 shutouts, 1 more than Atlanta and Los Angeles ... the Cubs led the N.L. in shutouts for the first time since 1938 (16).
- with 51 doubles, Grace won the N.L. doubles title ... recorded only the fourth 50-doubles campaign in Cubs history and the N.L.'s first since Pete Rose (51) in 1978.

BAT MEN: Sosa tied for 2nd in the N.L. in homers (36) and finished 2nd in RBI (119) ... also placed in the Top 10 in total bases (282), steals (34), at-bats (564), RBI ratio (1 every 4.7 at-bats), home run ratio (1 every 15.7 at-bats) and outfield assists (13).

- Grace ranked 5th in the league with his career-high .326 batting average, finishing in the N.L. Top 10 in batting for the sixth time in his eight M.L. seasons ... his batting average was the highest for a Cubs player since Bill Madlock batted .339 in 1976 ... also ranked among the Top 10 in runs scored (97), hits (180), total bases (285), at-bats (552), extra-base hits (70), multi-hit games (53), on-base percentage (.395) and slugging percentage (.516).
- Brian McRae led the league in at-bats with 580 and led N.L. outfielders in total chances (352) and putouts (345) ... placed on the N.L. leader board in runs scored (92), hits (167), multi-hit games (52) and doubles (38).

DOUBLES MARK: Grace led the N.L. with 51 two-base hits.

- since St. Louis' Joe Medwick set the N.L. record for doubles in a season with 64 in 1936, the only other N.L. players to reach the 50-doubles mark have been Medwick in 1937 (56), St. Louis' Enos Slaughter in 1939 (52), St. Louis' Stan Musial in 1944 (51), 1946 (50) and 1953 (53), Cincinnati's Frank Robinson in 1962 (51) and Cincinnati's Pete Rose in 1978 (51).
- Grace became the first Cubs batter to lead the N.L. in doubles since Bill Buckner (38) in 1983 ... the only Cubs to lead the league in doubles this century are Heinie Zimmerman in 1912 (41), Riggs Stephenson in 1927 (46), Kiki Cuyler in 1934 (42), Billy Herman in 1935 (57) and Buckner in 1981 (35) and 1983 (38).

30/30 VISION: Sosa had 36 home runs and 34 stolen bases in joining the 30-homer/30-steal club for the second time ... is the only player in Cubs history to have a 30/30 campaign.

- there have been only 24 30/30 campaigns in M.L. history ... Sosa was the only player to accomplish the feat in 1995.
- Sosa is one of six players in M.L. history to have more than one 30/30 season.

EXTRA, EXTRA: Despite the shortened schedule, the Cubs recorded the fourth 250-double/150-homer season in club history (267 doubles, 158 homers) ... the team previously accomplished the feat in 1930 (305 doubles, 171 homers), in 1986 (258 doubles, 155 homers) and in 1993 (259 doubles, 161 homers).

- the Cubs finished the season with more home runs than games played ... this was the 10th time that the Cubs had achieved that feat and the first time it occurred since 1987, when the Cubs hit a N.L. 162-game record 209 home runs.
- this was the 14th time that the club reached the 150-homers plateau.

IF YOU START ME UP: Cubs starting pitchers combined to go 58-50 with a 3.98 ERA (393 ER/888.1 IP), the 4th-lowest ERA in the league.

- the starters allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 77 of their 144 starts and worked at least 7.0 innings 59 times ... they issued 2 or fewer walks in 92 games.

PITCHING IN: Frank Castillo's 3.21 ERA ranked 8th in the league, while Jaime Navarro was 10th at 3.28 ... Navarro also ranked among the league leaders in wins (14), innings pitched (200.1) and winning percentage (.700).

- the Cubs had two pitchers in the N.L. Top 10 in ERA for the second time in four seasons ... in 1992, Greg Maddux was 3rd in the league with a 2.18 ERA and Mike Morgan ranked 6th at 2.55.
- prior to 1992, the last time two Cubs hurlers had ERAs among the N.L. Top 10 occurred in 1963, when Dick Ellsworth's 2.11 ERA was 2nd in the league and Larry Jackson's 2.55 ERA ranked 6th.
- Navarro led the staff with his 14 victories, just ahead of Jim Bullinger (12), Kevin Foster (12) and Castillo (11) ... this was the first time the Cubs had four starters with at least 11 victories since 1975, when Ray Burris led the Cubs staff with 15 wins, followed by Bill Bonham (13), Steve Stone (12) and Rick Reuschel (11).
- Foster ranked among the N.L. leaders in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (7.8) and opponents average (.240).

RUNNING FEATS: The Cubs stole 105 bases and were caught only 37 times — a success rate of 73.9 percent.

- the club surpassed the 100-steals mark for the 10th time in the last 12 seasons.
- the Cubs had 150 homers and 100 steals in the same season for only the sixth time in club history.
- from August 26-September 13, the Cubs were a perfect 20-for-20 in their stolen-base attempts ... from August 26-September 28, the club went 35-for-37 on the basepaths, with both runners getting thrown out on pitcher pickoffs.

Scoring Rule — Pinch Hitters

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

Save Rule

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualifies under the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Blown Save Definition

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.
